

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendments to the claims filed on June 14, 2011 have been fully considered. The claim objections have been obviated and are thus hereby withdrawn.
2. The 35 USC 102b rejection is maintained. Applicant has argued that the claims are drawn to enantiomerically pure compounds when Y1 and Y2 are different. Applicant's limitation is to wherein when Y<sup>1</sup> and Y<sup>2</sup> are different groups, the stereochemistry at carbon a is either R or S. This limitation does not limit compounds to one particular enantiomer, as the carbon stereochemistry can be either R or S. Thus, R or S enantiomers are within the scope of the claims. Further, even if Applicant is to limit to R (for example) this does not exclude mixture of S, ie. racemic mixture. That is, prior art that discloses a racemic mixture necessarily discloses R enantiomer and as such would anticipate the claims.
